THE UNITED STATES COURT, FEBRUARY 15-

HON. GEORGE S. BRYAN, PRESIDING .- On the petition of F. J. Smith, assignes of George Hoffman, to sell real estate, it was ordered that the previous order made in this cause be so modified as to require the petitioner, after the sale of property, to pay the costs, &c. W. J. Wilson, Daniel Williams, R. C.

Blassingame, W. T. Wylie, J. S. Jeffreys, Daniel W.

Jordan, petitioned for final discharge, and were re-erred to Registrar Clawson to take final hearing in their cases. The favorable report of Registrar Carpenter on the petition of W. R. Johnson for order of sale was referred back to the Registrar to inquire whether the land in question will be worth the debt now due, and whether it would be most advantage-liquidation. The admiralty side of the court was occupied principally during the day with sundry libels aga not the owners of the schooner Grapeshot,

THE MORTALITY REPORT. - The report of the City Registrar, for the week ending Saturday, 13th inst., shows a total of twenty-five deaths-of which nincteen were colored and six whites. One colored man is reported to have ded of old age, being over one hundred years old; and one colored man and one colored woman are reported to have died from neglect. One white man committed suicide.

LAND BUYERS IN CLARENDON. - The Clarendon Press, after netteing the unusual number of bidders in Manuing, on last sales day, adds : "We noticed some strangers whom we had not seen before, and upon inquiry found that they were from the North and their business here was to purchase real estate. Land sold remarkably well. We are told that some o' it brought more than the same land could have been sold for before the war. Four or five large tracts were sold, and the terms in nearly

ART GALLERY. -Our readers, who are interested in the fine arts, will find in the advertisement of A. V. S. Smith's Art Gallery, an introduction to a place where the most fastidious taste will be most pleasantly gratified. In Mr Smith's gallery will be found the finest paintings and the most flaished specimens of chromos, engravings, and everything in that line which gives grace or charm to the parlor. Among the many attractions of Washington, nore will more gratify the visitor than the gallery with which Mr. Smith, at much cost, and as we hope with some profit to himself, has established for the

IMPROVEMENTS IN THE GUARDHOUSE .- Captain Hendricks, of the police force, his suggested some very descrable improvements in the guardouse which a c now being made. In the cells bunks are to be put up, and the prisoners will be allowed a mattress and a reasonable amount of covering. In the man room, where the watchmen all sleep, there is to be a division; one side to be occupied by the day-men and the other by the night watch. The lieu enant's office has been removed down stairs, so that ready intercourse can be had with him by the men or persons who seek him officially. Some savitary change: have been made that

ANNIVERSARY OF THE BIBLE SOCIETY .- The fifty-eighth anniversary of the Charleston Bible Soci ety, was celebrated last evening, at the second sbyterian Church, The Rev. W. H. Adams read the annual report, which showed that notwithstanding the stringency of the times, the transactions have been of a decidedly hopeful character. The report of the Tressur r showed a balance of $360 47 in favor of the Society, and a member-hip of one hundred and minety-two. After the reading of the report, eloquent and appropriate addresses were delivered by the Rev. J. R. Pickett and the Rev. Dr. W. W. Hicks. There was a full attendance of those favorable to the cause, and the hope is entertained that there will be a large accession to the roll of the society during the coming year.

THE SOIREE DANSANTE. This entertainment at the Hibernian Hall last evening, given in aid of the German Ladies' Society, was a most complete success in every particular. The hall was crowded capacity, and at times there were as many as fifty or sixty couples on the floor at once. There were recitations by ladies, and songs, all of flowers to supply themselves with choice varieties, which were rendered with grace and effect. The directly imported from France. Messrs. Pellorse & nusic furnished by Merz's band was not the least feature of the gay and agreeable evening. Refreshwho won a medal at the Exposition Universel of 1867, ments were to be had at the Buffet, under the expehave of ened a store at 191 King-street, where they rienced manipulation of Mr. D. Gotjen. There has will remain for two weeks to dispose of their stock, not been a pleasant r or more successful entertainment in our city this season.

REPORTERS' CRUMBS .- There is a lamp post in Queen-street, opposite the Ætna Eugine and Axe Company houses, that is in the way of these compa nies, and could be removed.

The Germania Bund will give one of their members, who is going away to live, a farewell entertainment next Monday night. Messrs. Durbec & Issertel, photographers, have bought out a part of the stock of Mr. Osborne, who intends leaving the city. The reorganization of the police force has been postponed for the present. All of the City Railway cars have been resupplied with new racks, or open-work flooring. Leitch & Bruns sold City Stock yesterday at 58 1/20
